OFFICIAL.
ABRAHAM LINCOLN, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
To whom it may concern:—
That Mr. Bateman is in a DIFFICULTY.—Those who have been in the field of politics at one time or another, will find in an American item from the police court at Bar street, which seems to call for some sort of notice from a London correspondent of an American newspaper. It is not a savory business, rather affecting the character of Mr. Bateman, father of "Queen Leah" Bateman, popularly known as the "Queen of Bowery." Mr. Bateman, from his position as a Bowery Batterman, is from his looks and general manner of manner. It appears that the office-holding class of the Adelphi Theatre, a Mrs. Brissot, has an exceedingly pretty daughter by a former husband, named Georgia Turner, upon whom Mr. B. is charged with bestowing peculiar attentions, involving meetings in the Strand after the theatres were closed, nocturnal rides in boats, &c. Hence the anxious mother became suspicious, and discovered the pair to a house, and where, as she alleged, Mr. Bateman assailed her, verbally and physically, for which she gave him in charge; hence two columns of proceedings in Wednesday's papers.

"The charge was prepared, the lawyers were met, the beat he was sitting, a terrible show," to witness which came both authors, actors, and spectators. With Mr. Bateman has a very large acquaintance. That gentleman's lawyer conduct himself in such generally rampant and objectionable manner, did so wrangle and snarl at, and twist his forensic opponent as to create a very strange impression against his client, in favor of whom testified the cabinet, (who hadn't received five shillings for coming to give evidence but had a good time) and didn't see any assault committed—but nothing more.

Both of the persons immediately concerned, assert their innocence of everything but the purest intentions. Though the young lady has written letters—a parcel of them—to her elderly father, are containing the apparently unequalled proof of statement, "I am not a prostitute," and though she admits that he has visited her, she does not know that he really can't remember how many times. "I am a sinner," the word records one of Gavarni's caricature: "Le premier janvier prochain, je payerai à l'ordre de mademoiselle Beauparrot, le somme de trente cent dix francs, valeur réelle—in quoque est effectio ne de re dire i' est en devanage i' mes mœurs." The case is to go before a jury, Mr. Bateman being held to $100 bail.—London Correspondence N. Y. Tribune.

VERY GOOD.—When the loyal Dutchmen at Mobile heard the guns of our fleet at the mouth of the river, they smiled and said: "Dat is Purrs-goot.—N. O. Times."
